

Breed Standards for the Treeing Feist

Body:	Keen to slightly stock body
Ears:	Short ears, slightly hung down, flopped and straight acceptable. Cocked ears are very desirable
Muzzle:	Long muzzle, keen
Legs:	Good strong legs; bench legs acceptable
Tail:	Full length tail; stub tail will not prevent registration
Color:	Black, white, tan, red, yellow to lemon, or any variation of foregoing colors
Height:	Males: 10" to 18" Females: 10" to 17"
Weight:	30 pounds maximum
Coat:	Good coat of hair, short. No extremely long or shaggy haired dogs
Gait:	Free gait, hunt with eyes and ears alert
Voice:	Virtually silent on track
Characteristics:	Shall tree squirrel or coon; game must be seen